

Larry Moses
President Emeritus and Senior Philanthropic Advisor
The Wexner Foundation

In his 29th year of service to The Wexner Foundation, and after thirteen years as its President, Larry Moses serves as the Foundation's President Emeritus and Senior Philanthropic Advisor. He was the Founding Director of the Wexner Graduate Fellowship Program in 1987, and later Foundation Vice President.

As Leslie and Abigail Wexner's senior philanthropic advisor, Larry plays a key role in organizing the family's philanthropic activities, and works closely with philanthropists and public leaders in Central Ohio, throughout North America and across the globe.

Larry's scholarly interests rest largely in the arena of Holocaust studies. His mother was a survivor of Auschwitz, and Larry has taught extensively on various historical, theological and human dimensions of the Holocaust.

Larry has received a variety of community and organizational awards and serves on a number of boards and advisory committees, including as an officer of the Board of Directors of the Jewish Funders Network, as a Board and Executive Committee member of Hillel International and as a member of the External Advisory Committee for the USC Shoah Foundation's Visual History Archive Program. His published articles and frequent keynote presentations, often centering on the challenges of leadership in contemporary community life, have been widely circulated.

Larry received a BA in philosophy from Indiana University, an MA in modern Jewish history from the Baltimore Hebrew University, and an MSW from the University of Maryland School of Social Work and Community Planning. He also studied and taught at The Hebrew University of Jerusalem. In May 2006, Larry was the recipient of an honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters from Baltimore Hebrew University.

He has received a variety of community and organizational awards and distinctions and serves on a number of boards and advisory committees, including as an officer of the Board of Directors of the Jewish Funders Network, as a Board and Executive Committee member of Hillel International and as a member of the External Advisory Committee for the USC Shoah Foundation's Visual History Archive.

Larry is married to Dr. Susan Steinman, a psychotherapist and researcher, and they are the parents of Dr. Alana Moses and Danielle Moses.
